

From: Rbuzz1931@aol.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 12/10/01 3:11pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The Justice department could very well spend more time on projects that have an immediate effect on the economy. Take a look at the variances in gasoline prices in the west. Blatant price fixing at its best! The Microsoft team is benefitting the economy with its state of the art products. Let their crybaby competitors wail all they want. Instead, they should just get busy, innovate and create new products and enjoy the fruits of the American free enterprise system like Microsoft did.